

Cache Valley Home Builders Association

CVHBA Mission Statement

Cache Valley Home Builders Association (CVHBA) is a non-profit association serving the community since 1973. We are affiliated with the Home Builders Association of Utah and the National Association of Home Builders. We represent home builders, remodeler's, developers, light commercial builders and associate members affiliated with the building industry.

Our goals are to:

- Provide public service to the community.
- Encourage social contact and development among members.
- Promote professional and ethical business practices in the building industry.
- Encourage construction of affordable housing.
- Continue the tradition of quality construction in the community.
